

K-Love provides me with music that I consider uplifting and part of my worship. Many persons, I know would lose this part of their everyday listening. The air waves are for every facet of the population to enjoy and this would discriminate this great number of people. I believe that K-Love not only meets the need of their listeners but many tune in by chance and find positive and even life saving programing. To me it is of great value.